NEWS OF THE CITY.

Friday next is the great Stevenson celebration in Raleigh. Display the bunting. It adds to every event of this kind.

Advices from the country yesterday were that every township in Wake would send mounted representatives to Raleigh Friday next.

The secretary of State has just finished sending out the election laws to each county in the State, to be distributed in each precinct in the State.

Judge Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, was in Weldon last night. The Judge said that the Old North State would undoubtedly go for Cleveland and Carr November next. —Weldon Cor. Richmond Dispatch.

There are no more joint discussions between democrats and third party men hoped for. At the Charlotte debate Aycock was allowed one hour, only, in the dividing of time while Exum and Butler spoke until they had nothing else to say. And even then the joint debate didn't work for them, and Exum announced that such would not be allowed again. Mr. S. O. Wilson has been challenged for joint discussions with Aycock, Bunn, Able and others but positively declines.

THE BIG FAIR AND CENTENNIAL.

Everybody Can Help Boom It in a Nice Way.

It is a thoroughly settled fact now that fair week in Raleigh this year will be the greatest gala week in the history of the State. The centennial celebration is assuming tremendous proportions, and bids fair to fill up the whole town. A craze is setting in about the fair. Everybody is talking about it—interested in it. People from everywhere are making inquiries about it. Now everybody in Raleigh, ladies and gentlemen, ought to take an individual interest in the matter, and in writing to their friends, either socially or on business, make some mention of the tremendous big time Raleigh will have. A lot of very neat invitations to the people of the State have been printed and are ready for distribution. These are very nice little documents for enclosing in any kind of a letter, whether it be a social letter, business letter or love letter. Every letter going out of the city for the next six weeks ought to contain one of these invitations, and if all letter-writers, of whatever character, will send to H. W. Ayer, or let him know that they will use some, he will supply them. Let everybody take a hand now, and let the people know what we are doing.

Negro Killed To-day.

The passenger train, No. 12, on the R. & D. railroad ran over and killed a negro, Abraham Kennedy, this morning at 1 o'clock, one-half mile this side of east Durham. The negro was either lying sitting on the track and it is supposed that in a drunken stupor he had fallen asleep. He was thrown to the right of the track and a bottle of whiskey was found near him.

Campaign Handbook.

The Democratic State Executive Committee is now preparing a campaign handbook, which will be published at an early day. It will contain a full and accurate comparison of the records of the democratic and republican parties, and show how these parties administered the State government. After examining this book no voter can be in doubt as to how he should vote.

ALL ROADS TO RALEIGH.

THE GREAT CELEBRATION AND CLUB CONVENTION.

Durham Will Send One Hundred Delegates—Other Representatives.

At the steevenson celebration and State convention of democratic clubs Friday, there will be gathered representative democrats, young and old, from every county and every hamlet in North Carolina. The officers of the association of clubs have been unusually wakeful to this occasion; clubs have been organized in nearly every town, and certainly in every county in the State, and Secretary Beck with informs us that every mail brings numbers of letters from people all over the State signifying their intention to be present. In Wake county there are clubs in each precinct—live, active clubs—and every one of these will send mounted representatives. Clubs in all adjacent towns will turn out in large bodies. Truly, it will be a great occasion, and Raleigh is preparing for a great occasion.

Durham will send one hundred and fifty men, with white beavers and dusters. The Sun, speaking of the occasion, says: "The democratic club proposes not only to give a rousing reception to Stevenson here, but it is going to be represented at Raleigh in great shape. Our brass band, the best in the State, is going, and it will march at the head of one hundred and fifty of the untainted democracy of Durham. The one hundred and fifty, in Cleveland beavers, linen dusters and walking canes and democratic badges. The hats and dusters will be at the store of W. A. Slater & Co., by next Thursday." Other teams will do as much.

Cotton Mills in the South.

The following interesting table showing North Carolina's lead in the number of cotton mills in the Southern States, has been handed us by Mr. J. S. Wynne, secretary and treasurer of the Raleigh Cotton Mills Company. It is noticeable that although North Carolina exceeds in the number of mills, it has fewer looms in proportion than any of the other States—the industries are smaller. The figures showing the excess in consumption of the Southern cotton crop in 1892 over 1891, is interesting:

	Mills.	Looms.	Spindles.	New and not completed.
Alabama	29	3,049	157,366	2
Arkansas	4	174	9,000	—
Georgia	64	10,593	492,851	2
Kentucky	6	688	51,800	—
Louisiana	4	1,335	50,700	—
Mississippi	11	1,681	60,824	—
Missouri	2	150	17,500	—
North Carolina	127	9,128	506,324	6
South Carolina	56	12,274	500,386	6
Tennessee	32	1,970	130,617	1
Texas	7	2,058	66,240	—
Virginia	14	2,971	105,212	1
Total	356	46,241	1,249,020	18

Average monthly takings, Northern mills, 182,564.

Average monthly takings, Southern mills, 57,173.

Southern mills consumed in 1891, 285,654,487 pounds.

Southern mills consumed in 1892, 321,032,088 pounds.

Total crop, 9,035,379 bales.

BURCH AND CHECK FOR SENATE.

Convention of Democrats, Eighteenth Senatorial District.

DURHAM, N. C., Sept. 10.—At a meeting of the democrats of the eighteenth senatorial district held at Hillsboro today, J. A. Burch, of Alamance, and Thomas M. Check, of Orange, were nominated for the State Senate. Mr. H. A. Reams, of Durham, was re-elected chairman of the district executive committee.

Gen. Barringer at Burlington.

BURLINGTON, N. C., Sept. 10.—Gen. J. F. Barringer, of Greensboro, addressed the Cleveland-Carr club here tonight. A good crowd was present and the General made an enthusiastic democratic speech.

Convention of 28th District.

Special to State Chronicle.

MR. ARLY, N. C., Sept. 10.—The democrats of Stokes and Surry counties which compose the 28th Senatorial district met at Pilot Mountain to nominate a candidate for the Senate. L. G. Waugh was chairman and Geo. P. Pell secretary. A. M. Stack, of Danbury, was nominated by acclamation with enthusiasm, and he made a short and well cut speech of acceptance. Mr. Stack is a rising young lawyer and has the confidence of straight-out allancemen.

A Proposal and an Inquiry.

Cor. to the State Chronicle.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 9.—Being desirous of perpetuating the memory of a dear friend who sacrificed his life in the late war, I am willing to contribute a block of stone to the Confederate monument with his name and the date of his death inscribed thereon. I have no idea what the Monumental association intend to do, but my zeal prompts me to suggest, that the friends of our fallen comrades be allowed to place their names upon the monument in immortal granite, each contributor furnishing a block with inscription to suit his or her taste, and such blocks being used in the base or pedestal of the monument. Would it not be well for the members of the association to invite discussion through the press as to the best plan to be adopted? B. F. MONTAGUE.

THE HICKORY TRAGEDY.

THE GROOM, OF A FEW HOURS, SHOOT TO KILL.

Sam Tilly Falls Dead From a Bullet—Obstreperous Negroes and Excitement Prevails.

Hickory, N. C., Sept. 10.—Hickory has never seen a greater excitement than is here tonight. Late this afternoon O. M. Cawthorn, of Selma, Ala., shot and killed Sam Tilly, col., of this city, in front of Hickory Inn, at which the former is registered. Cawthorn has just been married and is now on his bridal tour, having a young bride of nineteen years with him. The hotel is double guarded and has been searched. Cawthorn can't be found and yet there is no knowledge of his exit from the building. The negroes are obstreperous and this adds to the intensity of the excitement. All the town is on the streets and the Inn is surrounded with eager news gatherers, and officers are necessarily employed to calm the excitement.

THE PERSON WEAVERITES.

The County Convention Banned by an Ex-Republican.

ROXBORO, N. C., Sept. 10.—The third party people held their county convention here to-day. There were about three hundred people in the court-house, fifty of them being negroes, and about one hundred thirty partisans. S. P. Gentry was made chairman, and a full county ticket was nominated. W. F. Read, hitherto a republican, was unanimously nominated for the legislature. It is rumored that the republicans sent word to a caucus, held just before the convention, that they would endorse Read if he was nominated. The nominees for the other offices have hitherto been democrats. Nat L. Wagstaff received the nomination for sheriff, Geo. Woody for register of deeds, T. L. Harris for treasurer, and Dr. Pritchard for coroner. No nomination was made for surveyor, as they had no candidate who was a surveyor. Every candidate was called to the front to say that he stood on the third party platform. There was quite a contest for the nominations of treasurer and register of deeds, and Nat Tuck, ex-republican, nominated and seconded the nomination of many men for the same office. In fact, Tuck made an otherwise dull convention very lively by his various motions and requests to "see where you stand."

Settle republican candidate for Congress in this district, spoke immediately after the convention adjourned. He made no converts, despite his refusal to divide time with W. W. Kitchen, democratic candidate for the State Senate.

ATTACKED BY THE LIONESS.

A Circus Girl Barely Escapes a Horrible Death in Winston.

Special to the State Chronicle.

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 10.—Minnie Merrick, of Miles Orton's circus, while riding in the lion cage here to-day was attacked by a nine year old lioness and seriously injured. The show people had started out on parade when the animal rushed upon the woman. Miss Merrick, 23 years old, had nothing but a riding whip in her hand to protect herself. The animal knocked her out of the chair with her paw and made two strokes on her head, and inflicted a deep gash on back of the neck. The lioness grabbed at her right jaw with her mouth. Miss Merrick being very fleshy had nothing but the skin cut up. The animal had been enraged by boys poking sticks in the cage. But for the timely interference by the male keeper she would have killed the woman. The woman's injuries will prove fatal if blood poisoning sets in. Miss Merrick has been with Orton four years, but never before attacked. The lioness has generally been docile, but several times in winter quarters has attacked keepers when teased.

CAMPAIGN IN THE WEST.

Senator Ransom at Mocksville—Gold Hill Democrats.

Special to State Chronicle.

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 10.—Senator Ransom passed through Winston this morning en route for Raleigh to consult with Chairman Simmons relative to further appointments. The Senator was greeted with a large audience at Mocksville yesterday. The democrats of Rowan county held a big demonstration at Gold Hill to-day. Speeches were made by E. B. Jones, Theodore Klutz, and L. H. Clement. The occasion was a big democratic flag raising. The marshals for General Stevenson's big reception here September 19th was announced to-day. Col. E. H. Fries chief. Mr. W. Scoville, a native of Lynchburg, Va., to-day assumed the management of the hotel Zinzendorf, Winston.

AYCOCK FOR THE SENATE.

Enthusiastic Wayne County Democrats in Convention.

Special to the State Chronicle.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Sept. 10.—The democratic county convention held here to-day was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in the county. The nominations are: For Senate, B. F. Aycock; House, W. R. Green and J. A. Stevens; sheriff, Jos. H. Grant; treasurer, Jno. T. Dee; register of deeds, A. J. Brown; coroner, Dr. Thos. Hill; surveyor, J. J. Herring, Jr. Delegates were appointed to the Senatorial convention of the ninth district which meets at Magnolia the 20th instant. There was perfect harmony throughout.
